Understanding the Significance of Imam Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS} in the Sunni Islam

Some elements in Sunni Islam sow seeds of skepticism about the holy personality of Imam Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS}, which always meet with strong factual response from their own the Sunni scholars wherever and whenever such doubts are raised.

Imam Ahmad bin Hanbal said: "You hardly see anyone applying reason (\textit{ra'y}) [to some issue of religion or law] except that there lies, in his heart, some deep-seated resentment. An unreliable narration [from the Prophet] is thus dearer to me than the use of reason" - \textit{Muhammad Abu Zahra, Ibn Hanbal, p 239.}

In \textit{Nazmul-Mutanasir}, Al-Kittani does not agree with the ideas of Ibn Khaldun and says there are a lot of hadiths regarding this issue and that these accounts are mutawatir (widespread). He also says that \textbf{Ibn Khaldun is not an expert} in this issue therefore it is necessary to ask the experts about it.

A noteworthy feature of the Ahadith about the Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS} is that they have been reported by a large number of companions of the Prophet\textsuperscript{SAS}. Indeed, this is why they are considered \textit{mutawatir}, for so many people have reported them that they cannot possibly be false. The number of companions of the Prophet\textsuperscript{SAS} relating hadith regarding the Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS} is more than fifty. These include:

Ali ibn Talib, Thouban, Anas Ibn Malik, Qatada, 'A'isha, Abu Hurayra, 'Imran ibn Husayn, Nafi’ ibn 'Utba, Abu Barza, Abu Dharr al-Ghifari, Qaysan, 'Uthman ibn al-'As, Jabir ibn 'Abdullah, Abu Umama, Ibn Mas'ud, 'Abdulla ibn Amr, Samura ibn Jundub, Nawwas ibn Sam'an, Abd al-

In his book 'ar-Raddu,' Ala al-Din Ali ibn Abd-al-Malik Husam al-Din \textit{al-Muttaqi al-Hindi} says:

'May Allah have compassion on you and may you know that there is no doubt about the coming of the promised Mahdi. \textbf{Three hundred and more hadiths and works have proved this}.'

Hadith about Imam Mahdi as recorded in Muhadiththeen’s works:

- Tirmidhi in Sunan → 3 hadiths
- Abu Dawud in Sunan → 8 hadiths
- Ibn Majah in Sunan → 8 hadiths
- Ahmad bin Hanbal in Musnad → 12 hadiths
- Abd al-Razzak ibn Hammam in Al-Musannaf → 8 hadiths
- Ibn Abu Shayh in Al-Musannaf → 14 hadiths
- Ibn Hibban in Sahih → 7 hadiths
- Haythami in Zawaid → 20 hadiths
- Suyuti in Al-Jami al-Saghir → 8 hadiths
- Al-Muttaqi al-Hindi in Kanz al-Ummal → 59 hadiths
- Al-Haqim in Mustadraq → 12 hadiths
- Al-Firdaws in Daylami → 7 hadiths
- Al-Daraqtun in Sunan → 1 hadith

In these sources there are 159 trustworthy hadiths regarding Hazrat Mahdi (as).

Besides, the following great Islamic scholars included trustworthy hadiths in their works.

- Ibn Qasir → 3 hadiths,
- Al-Busuri → 2 hadiths,
- Zahabi → 5 hadiths,
- Munzuri → 1 hadith,
- Azimabadi → 6 hadiths,
- Albani → 6 hadiths.

These are only a portion of the trustworthy hadiths regarding Hazrat Mahdi (as). Apart from these there are many other trustworthy hadiths and explanations regarding Hazrat Mahdi (as).

Scholars of Ahl-us Sunnah who have stated that the Mahdi AS will appear are numerous, below is the list of some prominent and distinguished ones of their times for the sake of brevity:

All the hadiths related by our Prophet about Hazrat Mahdi stating that someone with matching name and personal traits will appear in the End Times and will fill the world with justice, are reliable. (Ibn Taymiyyah, Minhaj as-Sunnah an-Nabawiyyah, Vol. IV, p. 291)

This means that it is obligatory to believe that the Mahdi will appear, and it is necessary to believe that in order to abide by the commands of the Prophet. This matter has been recorded and proven in the books of faith of the People of the Sunna.’

(Ahmad ibn Muhammad al-Ghimari, Ibraz al-Wahm al-Maknun, pp. 3-4)
The Significance of Imam Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS} in the Sunni Islam

Taftazani says there are many sound hadiths about the emergence of Mahdi and the descent of Hazrat Eesa (Jesus) and that although they are ahad (narrated by only one person), their meaning is mutawatir. Scholars say they have the conviction that Mahdi is an imam from the descendants of Fatima and that Allah will send him when He wants to help His religion. (Sharhu'l-Makasid, 5:314)

Responding to Javed Ghamidi’s rejection of advent of Imam Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS}, prominent Sunni Scholar of mass following from Pakistan, Dr. Mohammed Tahir ul-Qadri mentioned and enumerated a long list of works of Muhadiththun who recorded the reports of advent of Imam Mahdi\textsuperscript{AS} tracing all the way back to the holy Prophet\textsuperscript{SAS}. Here’s the Audio speech

In his book Sharh us-Sunnah Abu Al-Asbal Ahmad Ahmad Muhammad Shakir writes: According to this Sunna that has come down from many of the companions of the Prophet, belief in the Mahdi is proven, and nobody has the right to entertain any doubts on the matter.

(Jasim Muhalhil, al-Burhan..., Vol. 1, p. 343)

The writer Sayyid Sabik, an academic at Egypt's al-Azhar University's Department of Beliefs, makes the following comments about the coming of Hazrat Mahdi (as) in his book Aqaid-i-Islamiya, published as a selected text by the Islamic Conference:

'The essence of the promise regarding the Mahdi is this: He will appear soon, at the end of time ... At a time when the world is full of cruelty and injustice, he will fill it with justice and good governance. It is certain that he will bring the law of Islam to the fore and will give new life to the weakened Sunna of the Prophet.'

(Aqaid-i-Islamiya, p. 250)

"The memorizers (Huffadh) and scholars of Hadith have verified that there are authentic (Sahih) and acceptable (Hasan) reports among the traditions related to al-Mahdi. The majority of these traditions are related through numerous authorities (Mutawatir). There is no doubt that the status of those reports are Sahih and Mutawatir. (They have also verified) that the belief in Mahdi is obligatory, and that it is one of the beliefs of Ahlussunnah wal Jama’a. Only those ignorant of the Sunnah and innovators in doctrine deny it.”

For the transcription and reproduction of this Fatwa ["The Muslim World League” (Rabitatul ‘Alamil Islami) on Oct. 11, 1976 (23 Shawwal 1396), Mecca], see, among others, the Introduction of al-Ganji al-Shafi’i, in the book named "al-Bayan," Beirut, 1399/1979, pp 76-79 and in Appendix.

We advise Muslims to trust in reliable hadiths and fully believe that Hazrat Mahdi (as) will appear in the End Times. Because those who say the opposite in fact have neither religious knowledge nor any belief in the hadiths. (Hasanayn Muhammad al-Makhluf al-Misri, "al-Syaid al-Basher Yatahadda al-Mahdi al-Muntadhar," Introduction to the book)
People have disagreed on the subject pertaining to the signs of Mahdi. Thus one group has hesitated (due to their honesty) and left the knowledge pertaining to the signs of Mahdi to its knower (i.e. Allah swt) and agreed on this thing that he will be a person from the progeny of Fatima daughter of the Prophet Muhammad, he will appear during the last period and Allah will bring him at a time of His reckoning and he will be sent to help His religion”. [Imam Baihaqi, Shu‘ab Al Iman]

In his work al-Futuhat al-Makkiyya, Al-Shaykh al-Akbar Ibn Arabi says:

'It is certain that when the world is full of cruelty and injustice, the caliph of Allah will rise up and fill the earth with justice and equality ... He will divide general earnings equally among the people, govern them with justice and decide on disputes between them ... Allah will order his activities in one night, and victory will always proceed him ... He will walk in the footsteps of the Prophet and never deviate from them ... He will do away with superstitions, and only the true religion will prevail...'

Shaikh Ahmad Muhammad Shakir (d. 1377/1958), one of the greatest contemporary scholar of Hadith and Tafsir, whose major work was his commentary on Musnad Ahmad Ibn Hanbal (for a biography of Ahmad Shakir, see al-Aalam, v1, p253; Mu’jam al-Mu’allifeen, v13, p368) wrote in his commentary: "Belief in al-Mahdi is not particular to the Shi’a because it is from the narration of many companions of the Prophet in such way that NO one can cast doubt the truth (of this belief).” After this, he proceeds to a strong refutation of Ibn Khaldoon’s weakening the traditions regarding al-Mahdi. (See Musnad Ahmad Ibn Hanbal with commentary of Ahmad Muhammad Shakir, Pub. by Dar al-Ma’arif, Egypt, v5, pp 196-198, v14, p288).

Al-Hafidh Muhammad Ibn ‘Ali al-Shawkani (d. 1250/1834) wrote in a book called "al-Tawdhih fi twawatur ma jaa’a fil muntadar wad-djjal wal masih” (the explanation about the frequent reports concerning the Awaited one, the Dajjal, and the messiah) in which he wrote about Imam al-Mahdi (as) that: "The traditions about al-Mahdi have been related by numerous authorities and are therefore reliable beyond doubt or confusion, because in jurisprudence the qualification of Mutawatir is valid even for (traditions) with less than this number of narrations.

al-Hafidh Abul-Hasan Muhammad Ibn al-Husayn al-Sijistani al-Aburi al-Shafi’i (d. 363/974) said: “The traditions were related by numerous authorities and were spread far and wide by many narrators, from al-Mustafa (S) concerning al-Mahdi who is from the household (of the Prophet) and who will fill the world with justice.”

This statement was accepted by the subsequent scholars as testified by Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani (See Tahdhib al-Tahdhib, v9, p144; Fat’h al-Bari, v7, p305), al-Qurtubi (al-Tathkirah, p617), al-Suyuti (al-Hawi, v2, pp 165-166), al-Muttaqi al-Hindi (al-Burhan fi Alamat Mahdi Akhir al-Zaman, pp 175-176), Ibn Hajar al-Haythami (al-Sawa’iq al-Muhriqah, Ch. 11, section 1, p249), al-Zurqani (Sharh al-Mawahib al-Ladunniyyah, v5, p348), al-Sakhawi (Fat’h al-Mugheeth, v3, p41), etc.
Many prominent Sunni scholars have written numerous books exclusively on the subject of Imam al-Mahdi AS. Few of them are listed below:

As well as the sources cited above, many writers in countless works have stated that the hadiths which have come down to us on the subject of Hazrat Mahdi (AS) possess a 'tawatur' level of certainty. Some of these Islamic scholars and their works are:
